Redefining Educational Success Begins at Turner at Green Elementary School

Turner at Green Elementary School knows that early childhood education is vital for ensuring the mastery of skills while making learning fun. In order to achieve this goal, Turner at Green offers enriching programs and services in order to motivate students to reach their full potential.

- Turner at Green Elementary School actively engages parents through our PTA and Parent Resource Center.
- Turner at Green is continuously developing and implementing new strategies to help teachers effectively instruct reading, writing, and mathematics.
- Turner at Green strongly believes in standards-based instruction where teachers, coaches, principals and all stakeholders are guided by data. This helps teachers in adjusting instruction to meet the various needs of students.

“Our students can meet and exceed expectations as we work together in partnership with the community, our parents, students, and teachers in order to reach the highest standards of academic excellence.”

– Linda Colon, School Counselor

Valuable Resources for You and Your Child

Turner at Green has a mental health counselor, a guidance counselor, a Special Education coordinator, a psychologist, and social workers on staff to meet the needs of all students.

Learning is a Community Effort

At Turner at Green, students and their families benefit from many quality partnerships that play an active role in student development. Some of these partnerships include

- Student tutoring in reading and mathematics from the Madeira School.
- The City Year Whole School Whole Child program brings caring young adults to tutor, mentor, and lead afterschool activities.
- DC Scores and Sports for Kids offer students the opportunity to participate in team sports and competitions.
- Students are introduced to the arts through partnerships with City Dance, Field of Dreams and the Washington Ballet.

Leading by Example

Principal Robert Gregory is the leader of Turner at Green. He helped to merge Turner and Green Elementary schools into Turner at Green, which opened in August 2008. Mr. Gregory and his staff are cultivating student potential and using resources to make Turner at Green a success. They fill every day with opportunities for students to learn and grow.

“DCPS has received significant resources over the last two years, enabling us to improve the quality of each and every school. You will find modernized facilities, committed teachers, and comprehensive course offerings, including music, art and technology. With many excellent schools to choose from, we encourage all families to seriously consider DCPS as a good option for their children.”

– Chancellor Michelle Rhee
